Jill A. Preston

Elder Care Services Administrator with Jackson White Attorneys at Law—Elder Care Attorneys.

Her presentation will include:

- A step-by-step explanation of the process by which individuals apply and qualify for the ALTCS program
- Advance Directives—explanations of Living Wills and

Health Care Powers of Attorney

- Overview of benefits available through Veterans Administration

Jill graduated from Willamette University in Salem Oregon with a BA in geriatric psychology. She has been in the medical social work field for over eighteen years. Jill is a member of the National Association of Professional Geriatric Care Managers. She is a strong advocate for the elderly and has a deep –felt desire to assist the senior community.

M. A. Kazmi, M.D.

Dr. Kazmi is a neurologist practicing in Lake Havasu City. His expertise includes the diagnosis, management, and treatment of Alzheimer’s disease, neurology, and palliative care. He is medical director for Hospice of Havasu. He is a trainer for palliative care for physicians, nursing and other paramedical staff.

Dr. Kazmi has written a booklet on Alzheimer’s disease, including various topics such as disease process, diagnosis and management of Alzheimer’s disease, and caregiver education.

During his update of “Alzheimer’s is Treatable”, he will cover early signs, behaviors, medications, diagnosis, preventable measures, and research. He provides valuable information in practical terms, which has been very reassuring for caregivers who have attended past presentations.
